Editorial correspondence should be directed to the Editor, A. D. Redmond, North Staffordshire Trauma Centre, Princes Road, Hartshill, Stoke-on-Trent, ST4 7GJ, U.K.

Manuscripts should be sent to the Editor of Archives of Emergency Medicine, Dr A. D. Redmond. Contributors must send three complete copies of the text, tables and figures and retain one copy as the Editor does not accept responsibility for damage or loss of papers submitted. Manuscripts must be typewritten on one side of the paper only, with wide margins, be double-spaced and bear the title of the paper and name and address of the author(s), together with the name of the hospital, laboratory or institution where the work has been carried out. The name and full postal address of the author to whom readers should address correspondence and offprint requests should be given on the first page; this will appear as a footnote in the Journal and the publishers will send the proofs to this author and address unless contrary instructions are written on the manuscript. An informative summary of not more than 200 words must be included, and should appear at the beginning of the paper, immediately after the title. The Editorial Board reserves the right to make literary changes. Papers should normally be divided into summary, introduction, methods (and/or materials), results, discussion, acknowledgements and references. SI units should be used throughout. The relative importance of headings must be clearly indicated. The main categories of heading are capitals, side bold and side italics. If necessary, small capitals may be used for subsidiary main headings. Papers are accepted on the understanding that they have not been and will not be published elsewhere and on acceptance they become copyright of the journal. The printing of a letter to the Editor is considered a full publication and the above rules apply.

Illustrations should be referred to in the text as e.g., Fig. 2, Figs 2, 4–7, using Arabic numbers. Each figure should bear a reference number corresponding to the number in the text, and should be marked on the back with the name(s) of the author(s) and the title of the paper. Where there is doubt as to the orientation of an illustration the top should be marked with an arrow. Photographs and photomicrographs should be unmounted and glossy prints and should not be retouched. Colour illustrations are not acceptable. Diagrams should be on separate sheets; they should be drawn with black ink on white paper and should be at least twice the size of the final reproduction. Lines should be of sufficient thickness to stand reduction. Each illustration should be accompanied by a legend clearly describing it; these legends should be grouped on a separate sheet of paper.

Tables should be as few as possible and include only essential data; they should be typewritten on separate sheets and given in Roman numerals. A list of illustrations and tables should accompany the manuscript.

References The number of references should be restricted as much as possible. Journal titles should appear in full. References to books should include the editor(s), publisher and place of publication. In the text references should follow the Harvard style: Smith & Jones (1991) and Jones et al. (1991) if there are more than two authors. Check carefully that the references in the text and in the reference list agree. Where several references appear together in the text they should be listed in chronological order. If several papers by the same author from the same year are cited, a, b, c, etc. should be put after the year of publication. References should be listed, double-spaced at the end of the paper in alphabetical order of (first) authors as illustrated:

Proofs will be submitted to the author responsible for proof-correction (see under Manuscripts) and should be returned within three days. Major alterations to the text cannot be accepted.

Offprints Twenty-five offprints of each paper are supplied free, but additional copies may be purchased if ordered on the printed card which will be sent to the author with the proof.

Extraction services. The Journal is covered by Index Medicus, MEDLINE and Current Contents Clinical Practice.
