

British Journal of Surgery

Published by Blackwell Scientific Publications for the British Journal of Surgery Society.

Senior Editor: R C N Williamson, London
Editor: J R Farndon, Bristol

Review Editor: J A Murie, Edinburgh
European Editor: C D Johnson, Southampton

The British Journal of Surgery, now in its 81st year of publication, is the premier general surgical journal in Europe, and is among the top surgical periodicals in the world. Its international readership is reflected in the prestigious international Editorial Board, supported by a panel of over 900 reviewers worldwide. Top quality clinical and research papers on all aspects of general surgery and other related topics are featured, while developing areas such as minimally invasive therapy and interventional radiology are also strongly represented. The inclusion of Leading Articles, Reviews, Surgical Workshops, Case Reports, Short Notes and Articles for Debate means that the British Journal of Surgery offers an appropriate format for any length or type of submission; in addition there are abstracts from key meetings, quarterly Digests from other major journals, abstracts from Surgery, correspondence, book reviews and conference dates. The British Journal of Surgery will be of interest not only to general surgeons, but also to those working in related fields such as radiologists, oncologists, physiologists and pathologists.
