

Review	74	Advances in the early diagnosis and management of acute myocardial infarction R Vincent
Original articles	80	Computerised tomography and acute traumatic head injury: time for change? J Cranshaw, G Hughes, M Clancy
	86	Should accident and emergency nurses request radiographs? Results of a multicentre investigation J Thurston, S Field
	90	Interhospital transfer of the critically ill trauma patient: the potential role of a specialist transport team in a trauma system G H McGinn, R E MacKenzie, J A Donnelly, E A Smith, C J Runcie
	93	Effect of a preprinted form on the management of acute asthma in an accident and emergency department S M Robinson, B D W Harrison, M A Lambert
	98	Decision making in resuscitation from out of hospital cardiac arrest R Brown, E Jones, E Glucksman
	101	Suicide rate following attendance at an accident and emergency department with deliberate self harm J Ryan, A Rushdy, C A Perez-Avila, R Allison
	105	Is fasting necessary before prilocaine Bier's block? I O'Sullivan, S Brooks, J Maryosh
	108	"Fast tracking" patients with a proximal femoral fracture J Ryan, M Ghani, P Staniforth, G Bryant, S Edwards
	111	The value of accident and emergency based physiotherapy services C D Morris, S J Hawes
	114	Patient's knowledge about their drug allergies J P Wyatt
Paediatrics	116	An accident and emergency based child accident surveillance system: is it possible? T F Beattie
	119	Topical anaesthesia for children's lacerations – an acceptable approach? J M Kendall, A Charters, S E McCabe
Health care	123	Do the national performance tables really indicate the performance of accident and emergency departments? J A Edhouse, J Wardrope
Viewpoint	127	Rules for collection of clinical data: the eight R's N Zoltie
Teaching	129	A survey of teaching and the use of clinical guidelines in accident and emergency departments P Hormbrey, B S Todd, C D Mansfield, D V Skinner
Short report	134	Swimmer's nose clip in epistaxis P Turner
Case reports	135	Near hanging presenting to an accident and emergency department M A Howell, H R Guly
	137	Munchausen syndrome presenting as major trauma S J Meek, J Kendall, P Cornelius, P A Younge
	138	Hair thread tourniquet syndrome R Y L Liow, P Budny, P J Regan
	139	Weever fish stings: a report of two cases presenting to an accident and emergency department R S Davies, R J Evans
	141	Lumps, bumps, and soft tissue sarcomas S J McGovern
Commentary	143	Health care resource groups in accident and emergency medicine N Brayley, J Marrow
Abstracts	145	Abstracts of the First Scientific Meeting of the Faculty of Accident and Emergency Medicine, Edinburgh, November 1995
Letters	149	Advanced life support courses J Fothergill, R Touquet, S Stacey
	149	Benefits of the immediate printing of blood test results within an A&E department M J Clancy, D Bingham
	150	Paracetamol overdose F Upchurch
	150	Anaphylactic shock D McHugh
	150	The Patients' Charter M Jackson
	150	Chest drain insertion F Poyner, L Williams
	151	Detection of aluminium ring pulls F Davies
	151	Finding and removing small foreign bodies: a new technique for A&E A Lannigan
Book reviews	152	