Emergency Medicine Journal is pleased to acknowledge the team of reviewers of manuscripts submitted for publication between 1 July 2000 and 30 June 2001. Their dedication and reliability provide an immense contribution to the running of the journal and are greatly appreciated. New reviewers are always welcome and applications should be forwarded to the editors.
The Editors of Emergency Medicine Journal are pleased to inform authors and reviewers of its new online submission and review system, which will be available from 15 May 2002. Bench>Press is a fully integrated electronic system which uses the internet to allow rapid and efficient submission of manuscripts, as well as the entire peer review process to be conducted online.

Authors can submit their manuscript in any standard word processing software. Graphic formats acceptable are: .jpg, .tiff, .gif, and eps. Text and graphic files are automatically converted to PDF for ease of distribution and reviewing purposes. Authors are asked to approve their submission before it formally enters the reviewing process.

To access the system click on "SUBMIT YOUR MANUSCRIPT HERE" on the EMJ homepage: http://www.emjonline.com/, or you can access Bench>Press directly at http://submit-emj.bmjjournals.com/.

We are very excited with this new development and I would encourage authors and reviewers to use the on-line system where possible. It really is simple to use and should be a big improvement on the current peer review process. Full instructions can be found on Bench>Press http://submit-emj.bmjjournals.com/, and EMJ online at http://www.emjonline.com/. Please contact Natalie Davies, Project Manager, ndavies@bmjgroup.com for further information.
