

Survey response results for primary care service provision in or alongside emergency departments in England and Wales in 2017-18

Out-of-hours (OOH) service on the hospital site	n= 65/77, 84%
Associated with the emergency department <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • working alongside emergency clinicians in one service • adjacent to the department • within the department but in a separate unit • other or combination of models 	n= 53/77, 69% <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • n=21/53, 40% • n=13/53, 24% • n=12/53, 23% • n=7/53, 13%
Patient groups seen by primary care services associated with emergency departments <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • primary care problems • low acuity problems including minor trauma • redirecting patients out of the department • undifferentiated patients, same case mix as emergency clinicians 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • n=48/53, 91% • n=26/53, 49% • n=9/53, 17% • n=6/53, 12%