

Supplementary Table 1 Consumer products with most changes in the number of traumas during the lockdown period compared to the control period in 2019.

	Highest decrease in the number of ED visits during control (2019) vs lockdown period (2020)	Highest increase in the number of ED visits during control (2019) vs lockdown period (2020)
Consumer products, change in ED visits (n, Δ%)	1. Stairs/steps: -49,316 (107,328 vs 58,012, -45.9%) 2. Basketball: -39,984 (48,412 vs 8,428, -82.6%) 3. Floors/flooring material: -36,292 (136,927 vs 100,635, -26.5%) 4. Beds/bedframes: -24,928 (78,011 vs 53,083, -32%) 5. Soccer: -23,091 (25,181 vs 2,090, -91.7%) 6. Chairs: -15,454 (35,026 vs 19,572, -44.1%) 7. Baseball: -15,174 (17,062 vs 1,889, -88.9%) 8. Exercise [activity or apparel, without equipment]: -14,418 (32,726 vs 18,309, -44.1%) 9. Ceilings/walls: -13,440 (30,696 vs 17,257, -43.8%) 10. Football: -12,668 (15,093 vs 2,425, -83.9%)	1. Saws: +1,112 (745 vs 1,857, +149.3%) 2. Lawn mowers: +977 (2,432 vs 3,409, +40.2%) 3. All-terrain vehicles: +737 (2,206 vs 2,944, +33.4%) 4. House repair/construction materials: +695 (1,358 vs 2,053, +51.1%) 5. Power drills: +657 (230 vs 887, +285.7%) 6. In-line skating: +637 (827 vs 1,465, +77%) 7. Portable power saw: +612 (764 vs 1,377, +80.1%) 8. General purpose household cleaners: +607 (945 vs 1,552, +64.3%) 9. Water slides [backyard/home]: +467 (5 vs 472, +9,680.9%) 10. Riding power lawn mowers: +456 (793 vs 1,250, +57.5%)

ED, emergency department

The consumer products are reported based on the categories provided by NEISS.