

Web-only Appendix 1

Kernig's sign for meningeal irritation

The hip is flexed with the knee also flexed (A). As the knee is straightened the patient complains of pain in the back or neck. It may not be possible to straighten the knee as much as in (B).

(A)

(B)

